

Hmong Studies Journal

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

December 22, 2017

Saint Paul, MN

VOLUME 18 OF HMONG STUDIES JOURNAL IS PUBLISHED AT www.hmongstudiesjournal.org

The Saint Paul-based Hmong Studies Journal is pleased to announce the publication of volume 18. An internet-based journal, the Hmong Studies Journal is the only peer-reviewed academic publication devoted to the scholarly discussion of Hmong history, Hmong culture, Hmong people, and other facets of the Hmong experience in the U.S., Asia and around the world. The Hmong Studies Journal has now published 20 online issues in 18 volumes with a total of 167 scholarly articles since 1996.

Dr. Mark Pfeifer, Editor of the Hmong Studies Journal stated “Volume 18 of the journal includes articles from multiple academic disciplines including Education, History, Psychology, Sociology and Family Social Science. This newly published set of articles provides significant additions to studies of Hmong History during the Secret War in Laos as well as research pertaining to mental health of Hmong Women, Hmong American experiences in the U.S. education system and contemporary Hmong American artists and social justice movements. This scholarly research will be widely disseminated through the Hmong Studies Journal’s website, the journal’s social media pages and to thousands of academic and public libraries through dissemination agreements with major scholarly database aggregators including EBSCO, ProQuest, Gale/Cengage, the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) and Asia-Studies Full-Text.”
