The Saint Paul-based Hmong Studies Journal is pleased to announce the publication of Volume 24. An internet-based journal, the Hmong Studies Journal is the only peer-reviewed academic publication devoted to the scholarly discussion of Hmong history, Hmong culture, Hmong people, and other facets of the Hmong experience in the U.S., Asia and around the world. The Hmong Studies Journal has now published 27 online issues in 24 volumes with a total of 194 scholarly articles since 1996.

Dr. Mark Pfeifer, Editor of the Hmong Studies Journal stated. This newly published set of articles provides significant additions to contemporary Hmong American and Hmong Diaspora Studies. Topics covered include contemporary studies of educational outcomes among Hmong K-12 students in both Laos and the United States. This includes an important study of the experiences of Hmong students attending Hmong-led charter schools in Minnesota. Also in this issue are book reviews of recent works in Hmong Studies including monographs by Yang Sao Xiong and a compilation of publications from the late Nicholas Tapp. This scholarly research will be widely disseminated through the Hmong Studies Journal's website, the journal's social media pages and to thousands of academic and public libraries through dissemination agreements with major scholarly database aggregators including EBSCO, ProQuest, Gale/Cengage, the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) and Asia-Studies Full-Text."
